THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

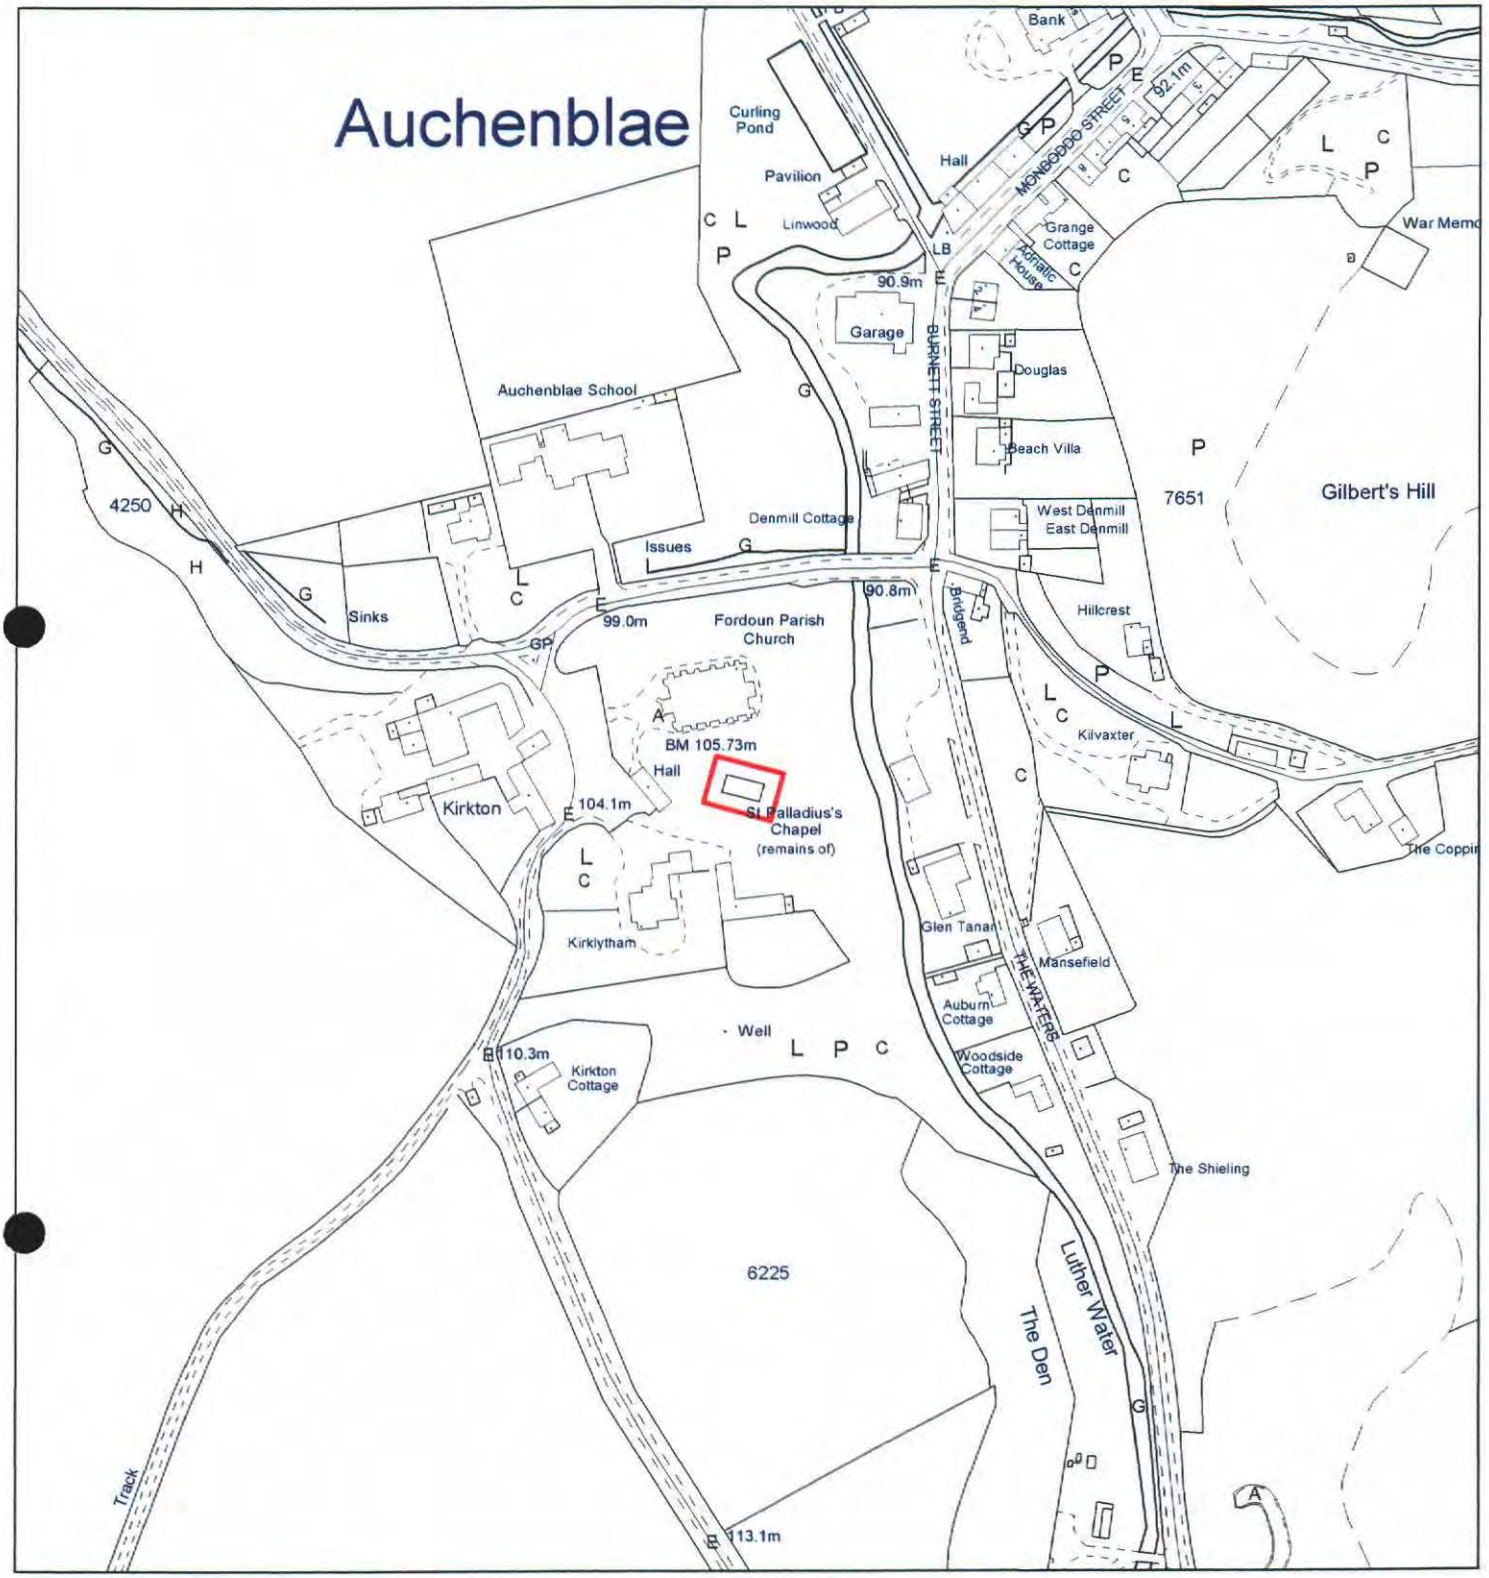

The monument known as St Palladius' Chapel consists of the remains of a late medieval church. It is dedicated to St Palladius, an early christian martyr in the Mearns, and appears to have been a centre of pilgrimage for him. The area to be scheduled is rectangular and measures 5m out from the walls of the church. The area measures 23m along its long axis, by 16m. Excluded from the scheduling are those burial lairs where burial rights exist and those monuments outside the building which are above ground. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Fordoun and the County of Kincardine as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Owen Kelly, Director, Properties in Care with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 21st day of May Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
