THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Peat Hill, fort and scooped settlement comprises the remains of a fort, dating from the Iron Age, with an overlying scooped settlement, dating from the first millennium AD. The fort lies in improved pasture on a SE-facing terrace, high above the Dryfe Water. The scooped settlement has been superimposed on the SW end of the fort and has reused the line of the earlier rampart on the SW and SE. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them within which related evidence may be expected to survive. It is sub-circular and measures a maximum of 80m from N-S by 75m from E-W. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Hutton and Corrie and the County of Dumfries as [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 1st day of November Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
