

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 11339
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Monkland Canal, 200m E of Cuilhill Road to West Canal Street comprises the remains of part of the Monkland Canal, including the canal itself (now culverted in places), the embankments on either side and the towpath running along the S side of the water-filled sections. This section of the canal is 3.1km long and runs from 195m W of Drumpellier railway viaduct to the W edge of the railway bridge at West Canal Street, Coatbridge. This monument is one of five that together constitute the known remains of the Monkland Canal. The canal lies at about 70m OD. The scheduled area is linear in plan and in two parts, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling includes: the abutment of the bridge N of Home Farm Court, Drumpellier; and the lower masonry walls of the quays lying on the canal bank in front of the 'Time Capsule' leisure centre. The scheduling specifically excludes: Drumpellier railway viaduct; the railway bridge at the E end of the monument; the road bridge at Blairhill Street (Merrystone Bridge); and the Blair Road bridge. It also excludes the above-ground elements of all electricity poles, fences and gates; all signage, seating and street art; the above-ground elements of all sluices, sluice crossings and drainage features; and the upper 300mm of all paths and in-filled sections, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Old Monkland and the County of Lanark as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 16th day of December
