

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 11342
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Monkland Canal, Coatbank Street to Paddock Street, Coatbridge comprises the remains of part of the Monkland Canal. This section of the canal is around 1.7km in length and is now culverted and infilled. It runs N and then NNW from Paddock Street for about 700m until it meets the dismantled railway. After an interval of some 200m, it recommences on the W side of Locks Street and runs roughly westwards for 1km to the E side of the bridge over the canal at Coatbank Street. The monument includes the route of the canal, the visible embankments, and the visible and buried sections of the towpath. It also includes the swing bridge and abutments from a now dismantled railway line, 230m E of Coatbank Street; the site of the former Sheepford Locks, immediately W of Locks Street; and the site of Rochsolloch Basin on the NE bank of the canal, just N of Paddock Street. This monument is one of five that together constitute the known remains of the Monkland Canal. This part of the canal lies about 80m OD. The scheduled area is linear in plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes: the Coatbank Street bridge and the Paddock Street bridge. It excludes all drainage features and access hatches and the above-ground elements of all electricity poles, fences and gates; all signage, seating and other modern additions; and the upper 300mm of all access roads, paths and in-filled sections of the canal. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Old Monkland and the County of Lanark as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

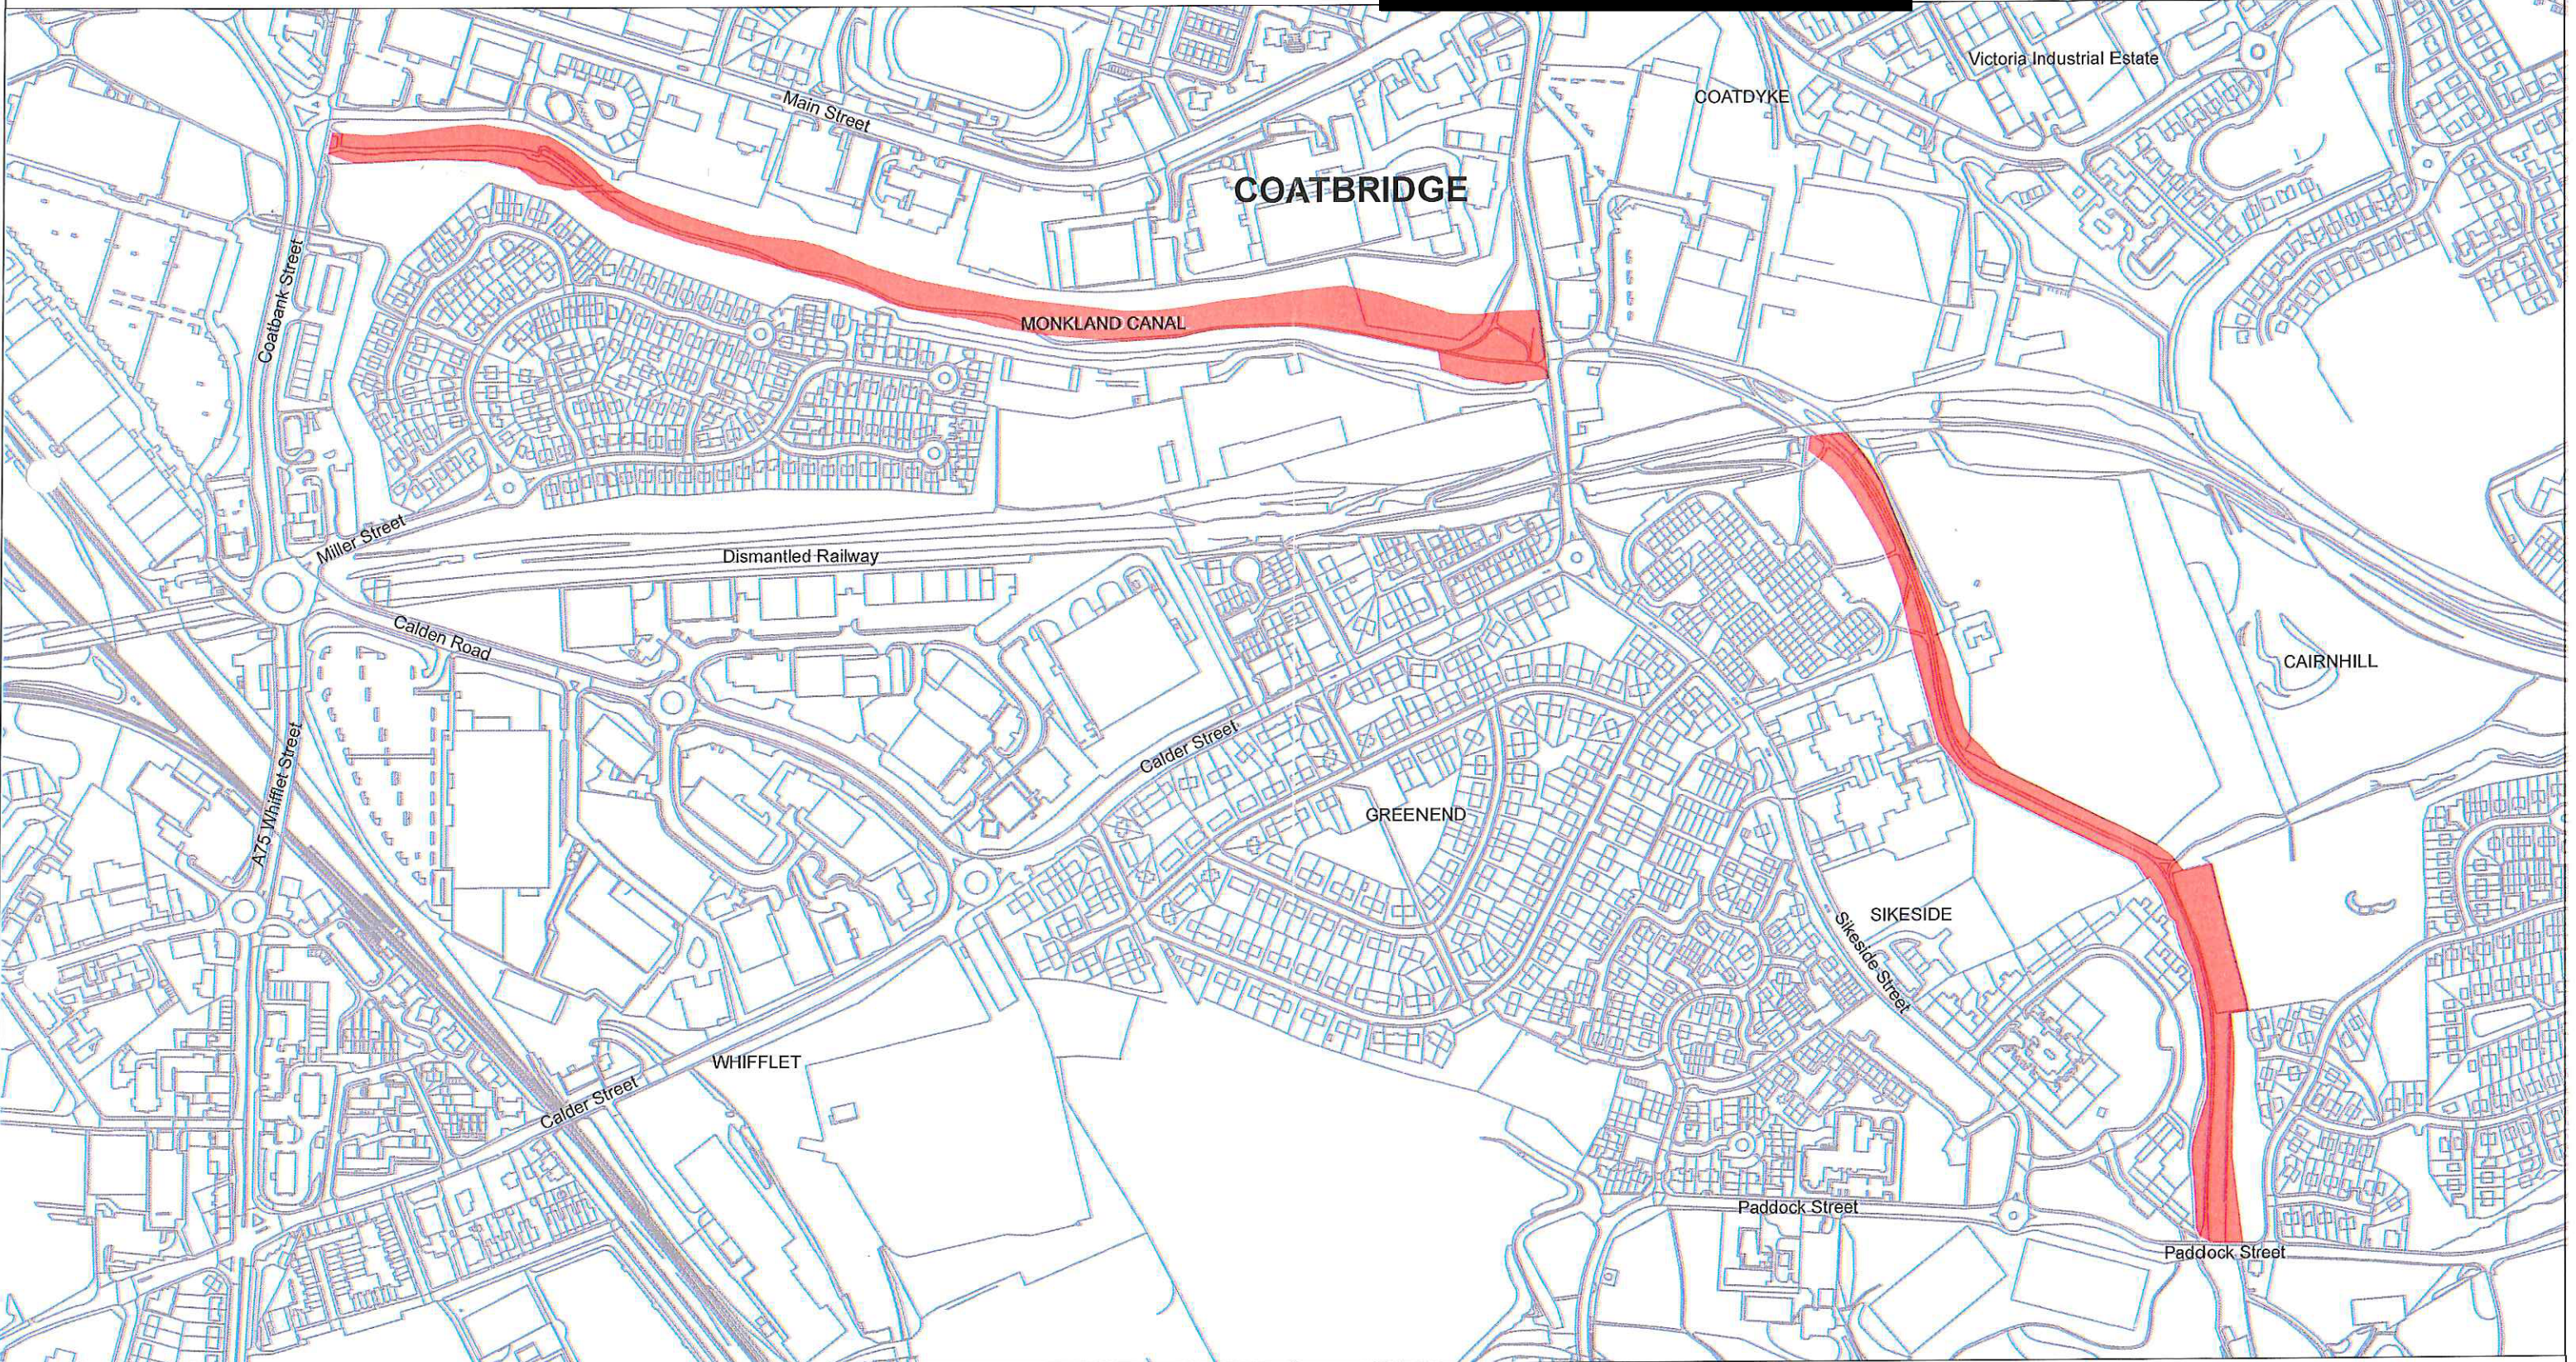

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 16th day of December Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Lucy White, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
