

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 11344
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Monkland Canal, Paddock Street to intersection with North Calder Water comprises the remains of part of the Monkland Canal. This section of the canal is mainly water-filled and runs NW for a distance of 2.6km, from the feeder sluice at North Calder Water to 70m S of Paddock Street. It includes the canal itself, the embankments on either side, the towpath running alongside the water-filled sections, and the sluice and dam across North Calder Water which carries water into the canal. This monument is one of five that together constitute the known remains of the Monkland Canal. The canal lies at about 70m OD. The scheduled area is linear in plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. On the S bank, the scheduling runs up to, but does not include, a post-and wire fence at the base of the embankment. On the N bank, the scheduling includes the top of the slope of the embankment. The scheduling includes the abutments of the three bridges that cross this section of the canal (a footbridge 200m W of Viewbank Avenue, Calderbank; a bridge 220m ENE of Faskine Farm; and another bridge 205m NW of Faskine Farm). The scheduling specifically excludes: all modern sluices and drainage features; the spans, road surfaces and railings of the three bridges; and the modern concrete elements of the dam across North Calder Water. It also excludes the above-ground elements of all electricity poles, fences and gates, and all signage and seating; and the upper 300mm of all paths and in-filled sections, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Old Monkland and the County of Lanark as shown in red on the Plan annexed and is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

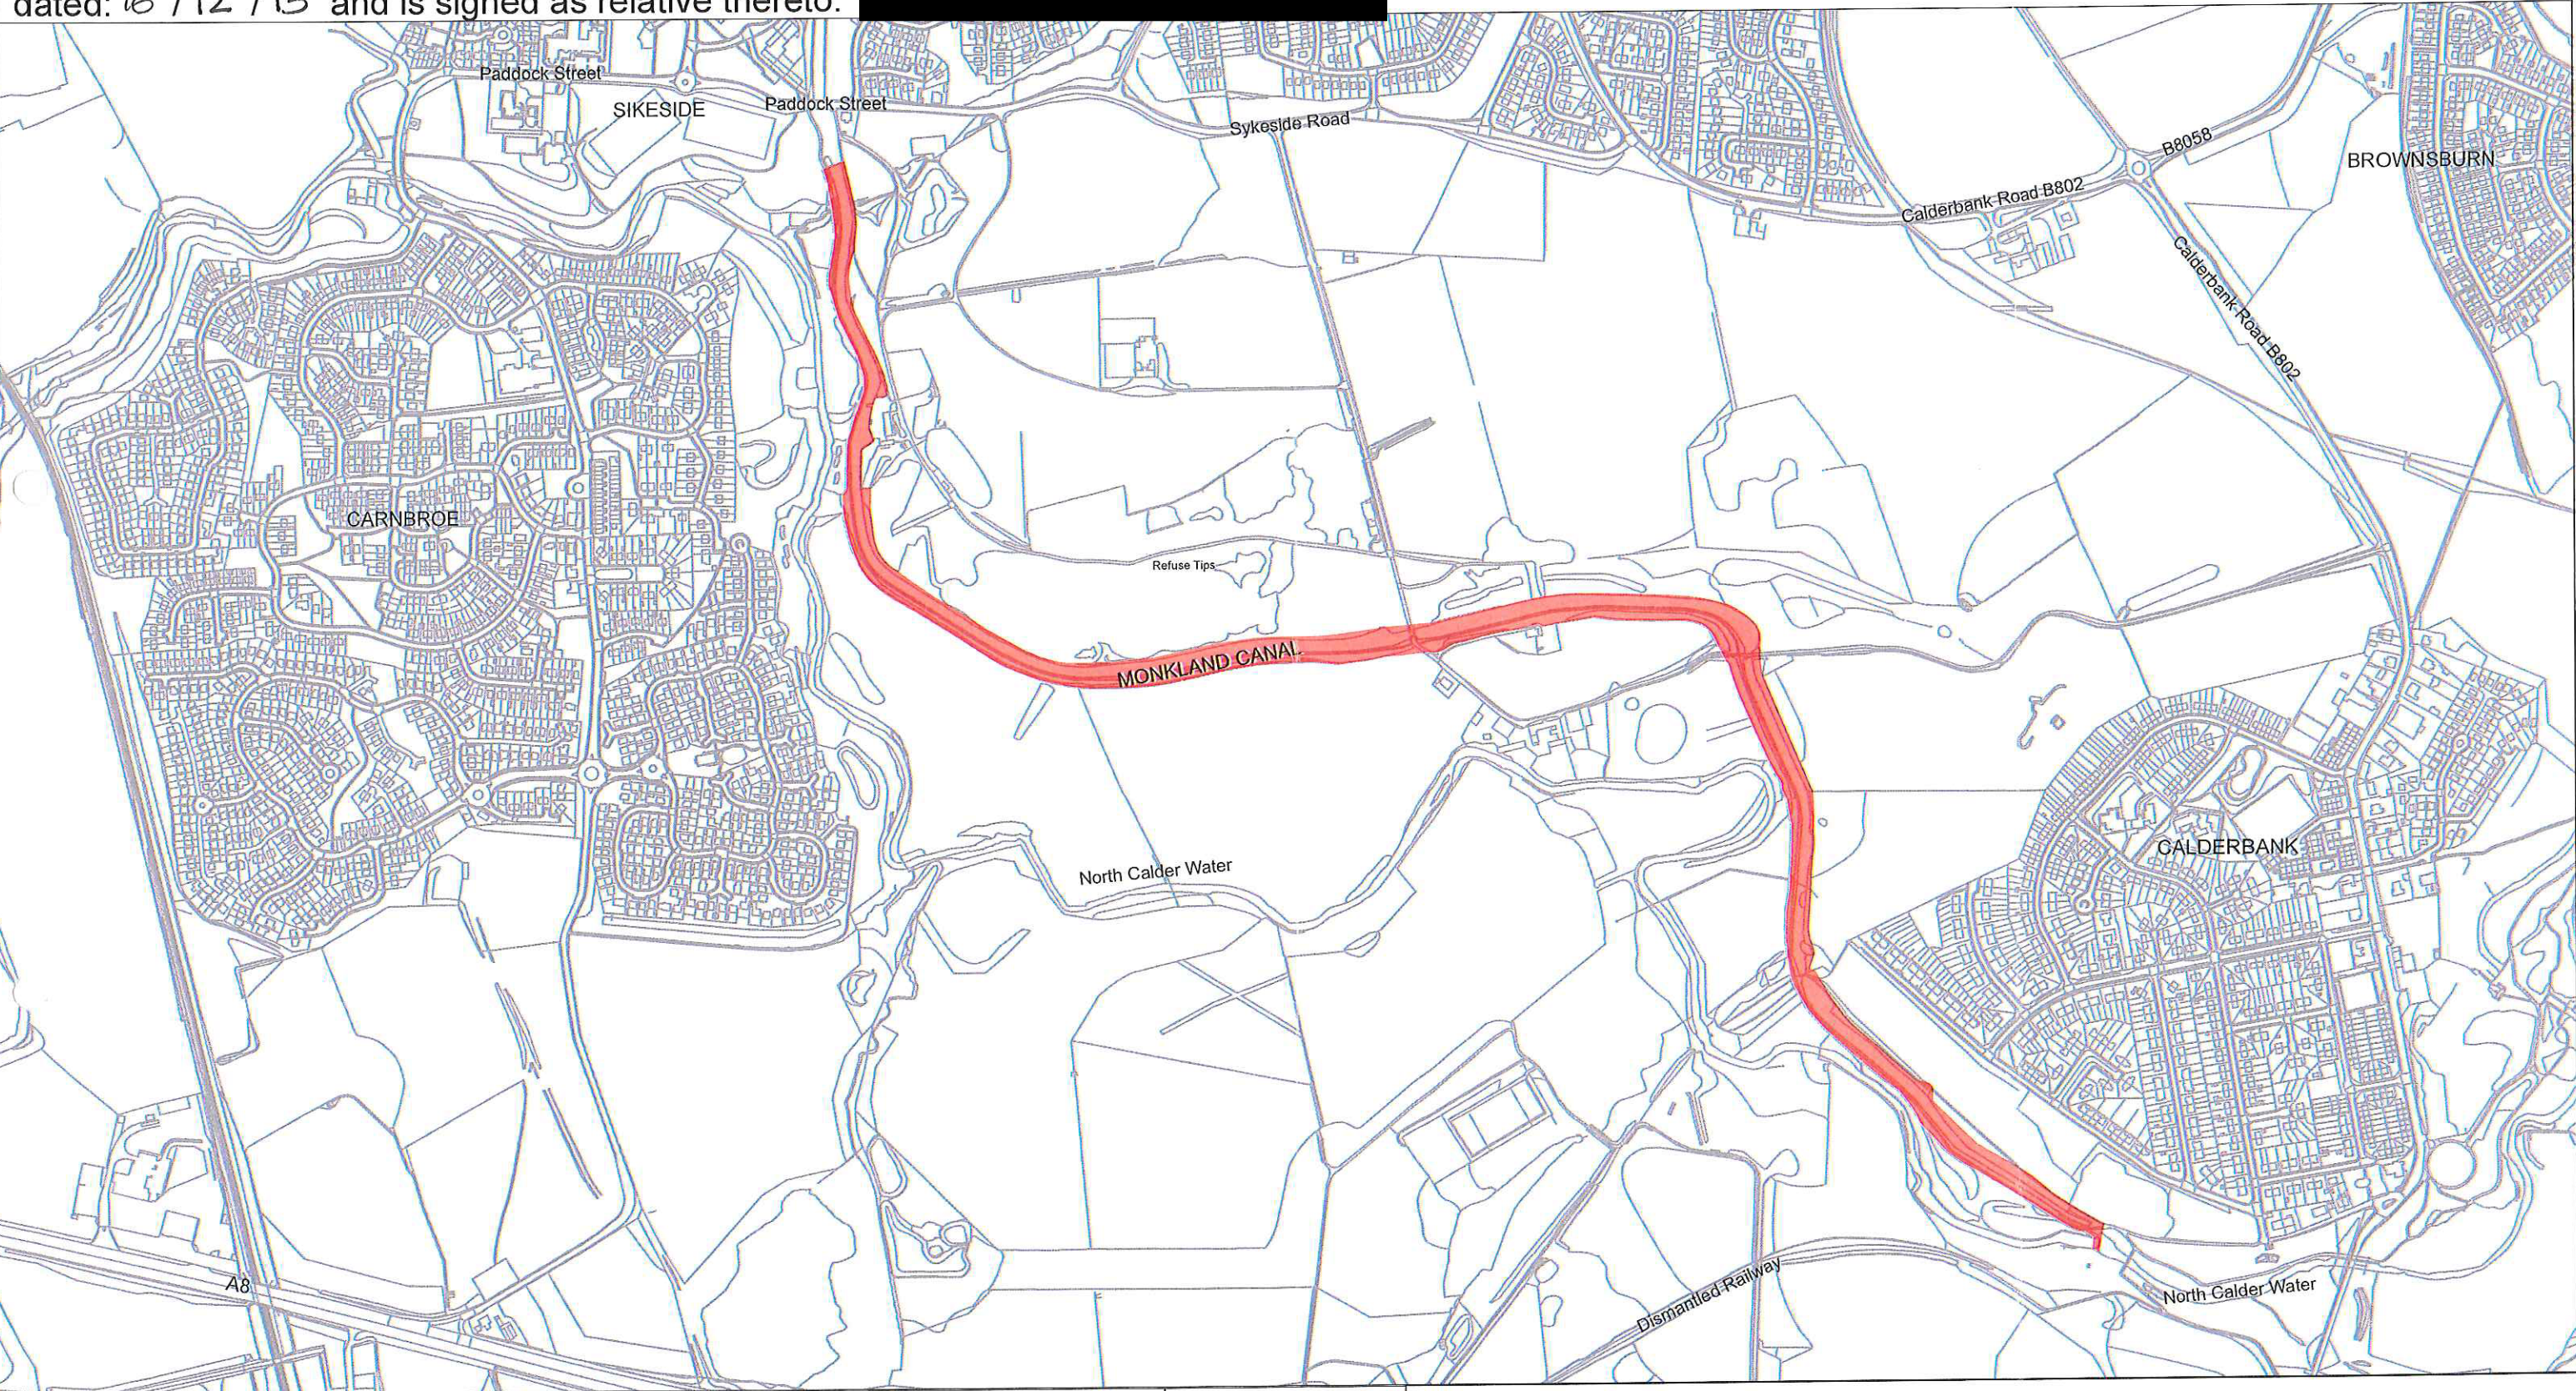

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 16th day of December Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Lucy White, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
