THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 11439
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Relaquheim, farmstead 1090m W of, Glen Ernan, comprises the remains of Auchnahaich, a farmstead of the mid-18th century or earlier, visible as a series of upstanding banks and other features. It lies on the N slope of Glen Ernan, 240m SW of Bressachoil. The monument consists of an enclosure, at least four rick-bases and the remains of up to eight buildings, including a kiln-barn. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains and an area around them within which evidence relating to their use and construction may survive. The above-ground remains of the modern fences on the site are specifically excluded from the scheduling, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Strathdon and the County of Aberdeen as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 20 day of March Two thousand and seven, before this witness Victoria Ball, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
