THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 11455
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Loch nam Faoileag, hut circles 730m NNW of Wester Balnagrantach, comprises three hut circles, between 4000 and 1500 years old, situated on a gently sloping terrace in moorland on a hillside. The hut circles are between 7.1 m and 5.8m in diameter internally, within stony banks 0.3m high which have spread to 2m in places, but have defined, exposed faces of coursed masonry visible in others. All are scooped into the hillside, which is dotted with at least 20 small clearance cairns. There is also an enclosure bank surrounding the hut circles and most of the cairns. A modern pipe trench and adjacent services trackway, cumulatively 3m wide, traverses the terrace, separating one of the hut circles from the others. The area to be scheduled is a rectangle, clipped to the NE by a trackway and centred on the hut circles, to include the hut circles, some of the clearance cairns, a portion of dyke, and an area around in which associated evidence may survive. The scheduling excludes the pipe trench and top 0.3m of the trackway, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Urquhart and Glenmoriston and the County of Inverness as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 22 day of September Two thousand and seven, before this witness Victoria Ball, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
