THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 11513
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Woodside, hut circles 300m W of, comprises two hut circles and associated banks of prehistoric date, visible as upstanding features. The monument lies between 230-35m above sea level on a natural terrace above a moderate to steep slope. The area to the N and NW has recently been afforested. A new fence has been put in to separate the forest from the first hut circle. The second hut circle survives within a clearing 8m by 10m within the forested area. The first hut circle lies 35m SE of the second hut circle. It has an internal measurement of 8m in diameter within a grass-grown stony bank, up to 1.8m in thickness and 0.3m in height. Two stony banks, measuring 2m in thickness, run at a tangent from the NE and SE walls of this hut circle and form a corner of a partially enclosed area. The north-eastern bank runs towards the second hut circle. It measures 6.8m in diameter internally within a grass-grown bank 1.8m in thickness and 0.2m in height. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them within which related material may be expected to be found. It is L-shaped and is orientated WSW-ENE. Any above-ground elements of the fence are excluded from the scheduling. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Culsalmond and the County of Aberdeen as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29 day of March Two thousand and seven, before this witness Victoria Ball, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
