THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

11681

The monument known as Cnoc Cailliche, fort 360m WSW of Upper Wheedlemont, comprises a fort dating to the later prehistoric period, visible as an upstanding earthwork and ditch, situated in rough pasture on the summit of a cone-shaped hill known as Cnoc Cailliche. The fort is oval, measuring 55m from NE-SW by 29m transversely, defined by a shallow ditch measuring 4m wide and 1m deep, with a stony bank on its inner edge. A counterscarp bank is visible around the outer ditch edge of the ditch. The area to be scheduled is roughly oval, to include the visible remains of the fort and an area around in which evidence relating to its construction and use may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Auchindoir and Kearn and the County of Aberdeen as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 7 day of November Two thousand and seven, before this witness Victoria Ball, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
