THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12034
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as St Mungo's Church, church and graveyard comprises the remains of a medieval and later church and graveyard, the former parish church of St Mungo. It survives as a ruined building with associated memorials and gravemarkers within a stone boundary wall. The church is located on a knoll on the N bank of the River Annan at 45m above sea level, north-west of the town of Annan and within 10km of the Solway Firth. The area to be scheduled is an irregular polygon on plan, to include the church and graveyard and an area around within which evidence relating to their construction and use may survive. It specifically excludes all modern burial lairs in active use, the stone boundary wall surrounding the burial ground, the access gate and top 300mm of the existing access paths, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of St Mungo and the County of Dumfries as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 7 day of February Two thousand and eight, before this witness Victoria Ball, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
