THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12092
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Hayknowes, settlement 180m NW of, comprises an elliptical bi-vallate enclosure, likely to be of Iron-Age date. It lies at 10m above sea level on low-lying land adjacent to the River Annan and Solway Firth. Comprising two well-defined ditches it encloses an area measuring 75m in diameter. The ditches are spaced between 6m and 10m apart, with the inner measuring 3m in width and the outer 2m in width. The area to be scheduled is a cropped circle to include the remains described and an area around within which evidence relating to its construction and use may survive. The scheduled area extends up to, but excludes, the fences and gates across the eastern part of the enclosure. For ease of maintenance, the scheduled area also excludes the above-ground elements of the fence that runs across the southern part of the enclosure. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Annan and the County of Dumfries as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 7 day of November Two thousand and seven, before this witness Victoria Ball, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
