THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12344
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Larrick, hut circle 60m NNW of comprises the remains of a hut circle likely to date to the late Bronze Age or Iron Age. It survives as a low grass-covered interrupted circular bank of stones that dense whin and gorse bushes partially obscure. The hut circle is located 80m above sea level on a gentle S-facing slope, above the river terrace on the N side of the River Don. The hut circle has an internal diameter of 9m within walls 2.5m wide and 0.5m high. It sits in an enclosed pasture field bounded to the east by a post-and-wire fence and with an established, rutted vehicle track at the west side. The area to be scheduled is sub-circular in plan, to include the remains described and an area around within which evidence relating to their construction and use may survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the post-and-wire fence at the E side of the monument, to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Fintray and the County of Aberdeen as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 16 day of February Two thousand and nine, before this witness Luke Wormald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
