THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12359
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Mordington, medieval village and church 210m S of Mordington House comprises the remains of Mordington village, an abandoned later medieval settlement, and the site of Mordington parish church and its associated burial ground. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described and an area around within which evidence relating to their construction and use may survive. The scheduled area specifically excludes a square plot of ground measuring 3m by 3m, located within the SW corner of the burial ground and depicted on the accompanying map, as it is an active burial lair. The scheduling also specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all post-and-wire fences, the drystone boundary wall of the churchyard, the gravemarkers within the churchyard and telegraph poles, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Mordington and the County of Berwick as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 18 day of January Two thousand and ten, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
