THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12516
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

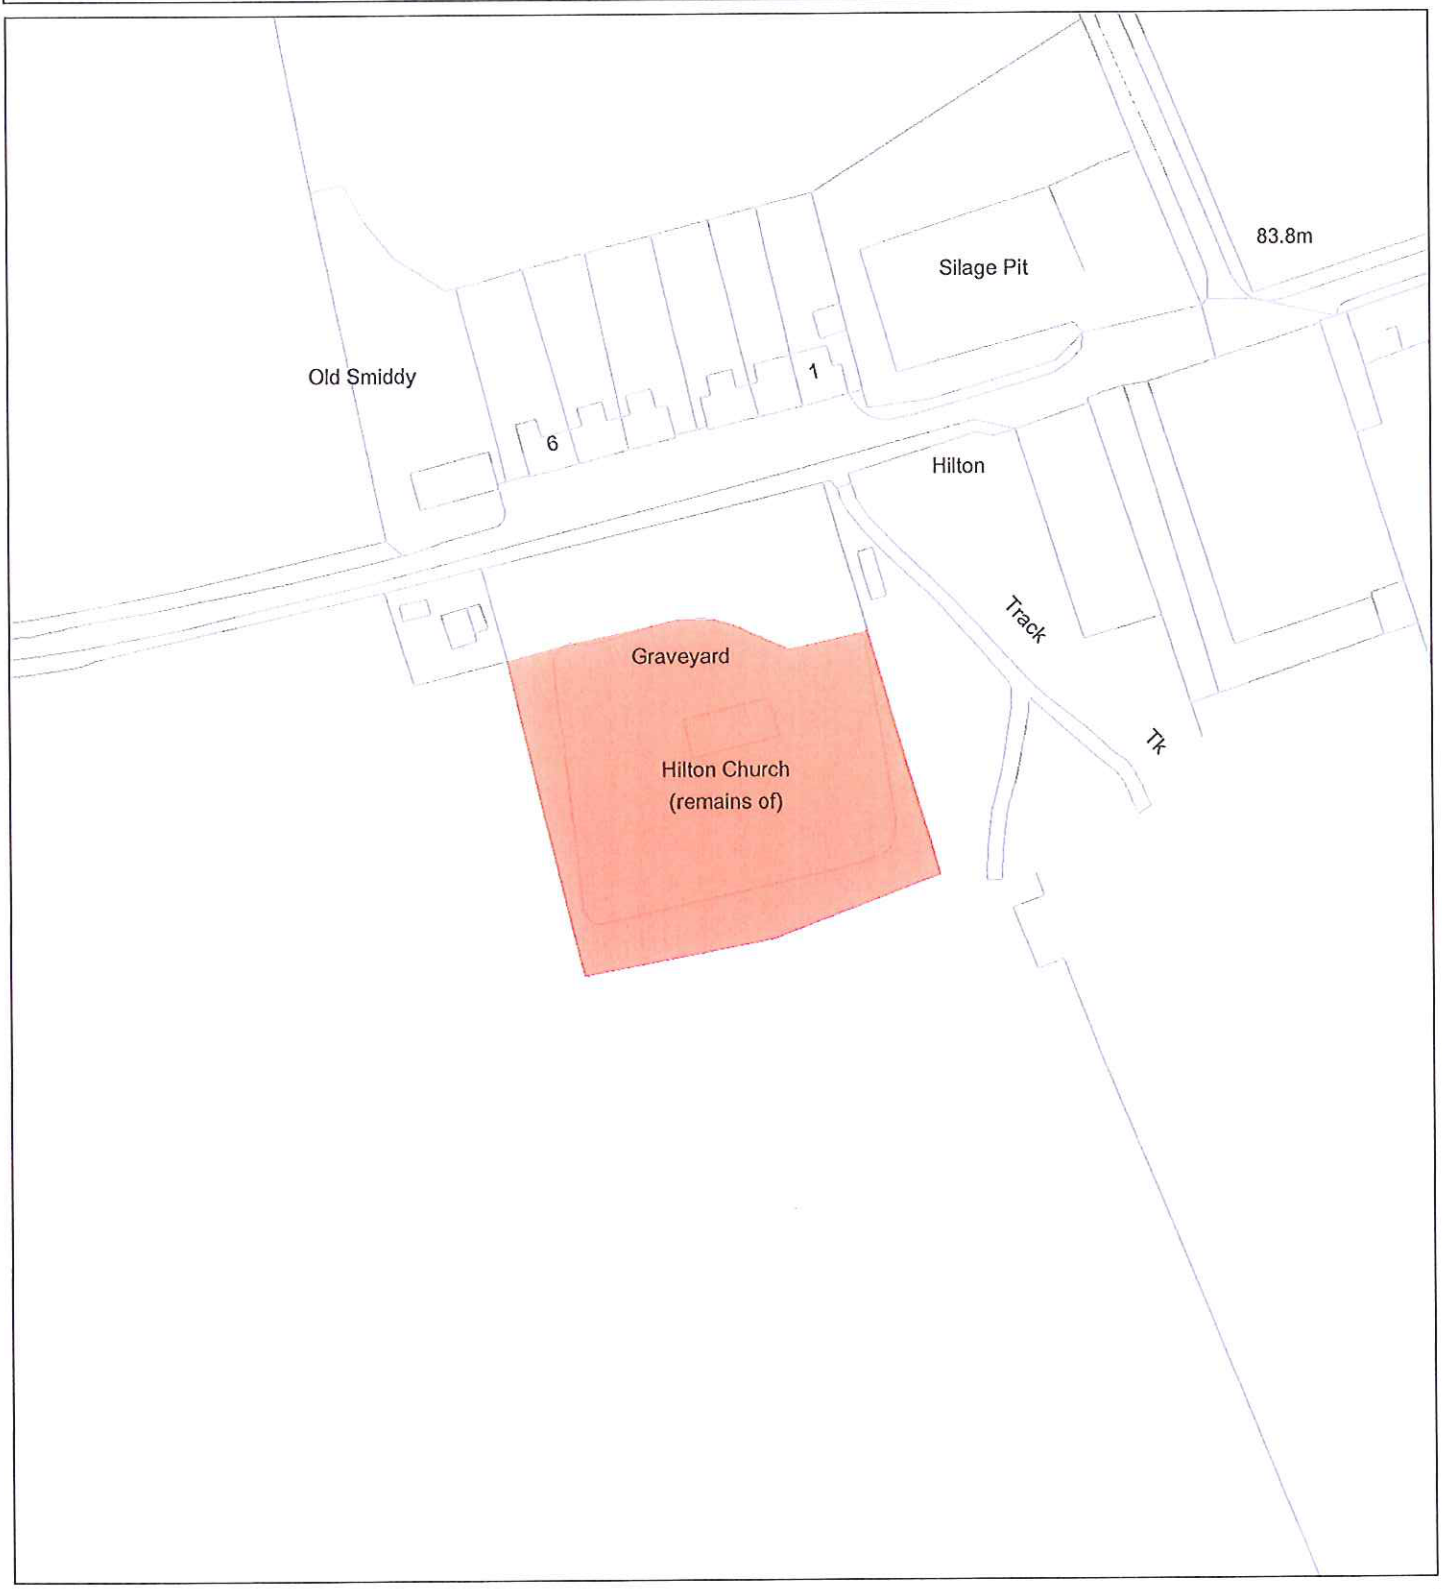

The monument known as Hilton Church, church and burial ground comprises the former parish church of Hilton and its burial ground, likely to be late medieval in origin. It is visible as a ruined building, the earthwork remains of the adjacent burial ground and at least 25 burial markers. The church was dedicated by Bishop de Bernham in 1243. It occupies the crest of a small hill at the W end of the hamlet of Hilton, approximately 85m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, bounded on the E, W and S by a post-and-wire fence and on the N by the base of the bank of the burial ground, to include the remains described. Specifically excluded are the above-ground elements of the post-and-wire fence marking the boundary and the above-ground elements of the telegraph pole in the NE corner, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Whitsome and the County of Berwick as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 11 day of August Two thousand and ten, before this witness Lorna Fairholm, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
