THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12549
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Little Eddieston Cottage, farmstead 235m E of comprises the remains of at least three buildings and other structures forming a pre-Improvement farmstead. The farmstead is located on a S-facing slope at between 80 and 85m above sea level and 265m north of the Gormack Burn. The remains of the farmstead consist of the partially tumbled wall footings of at least three structures, two of which form an integral part of a stone field boundary crossing the north of the site. The easternmost of these two structures measures 8.5m from ESE to WNW by 4.5m transversely. The structure in the north-west of the site has two cells. The smaller is located at the E end and measures 5m from ESE to WNW by 3.5m transversely. A further cell, or yard, of irregular plan abuts this structure to the west and covers an area of around 15 square metres. A further structure, of two cells, is located to the south-west. It measures around 5m from NE to SW by around 3-4.5m transversely. The partial remains of another rectangular structure are situated in the SE part of the site and consist of the S wall and its E return with a further section of wall in the NW corner of the structure. The area to be scheduled is irregular in plan, to include the remains described and an area around them within which evidence relating to their construction and use may survive. Specifically excluded from this scheduling, to allow for its maintenance, are the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence crossing the north of the monument. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Peterculter and the County of Aberdeen as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 12 day of April Two thousand and nine, before this witness Luke Wor[redacted]alisbury Place, Edinburgh.
