THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12607
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Eyre Burn, settlement 1km NNW of Stidriggs comprises the remains of a multi-phase settlement of later prehistoric date, visible as upstanding earth and stone banks. It lies in rough grazing on a small knoll adjacent to the Kinnel Water, at around 200m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is irregular in shape to include the visible remains of the monument, as well as an area around it within which evidence relating to its construction, use and abandonment may survive. Excluded from the scheduling, to allow for their continued maintenance, are the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence that crosses the scheduled area on the SW side. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kirkpatrick-Juxta and the County of Dumfries as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15 day of March Two thousand and ten, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
