THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12666
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Mid Hill, settlement 1480m SSE of Cairnknowe comprises the upstanding remains of a defended settlement likely to date to later prehistory (the first millennium BC). It survives as a series of concentric features, the main elements being an earth-and-stone rampart bounded by an outer ditch. The defences enclose three possible house platforms. The site is located in rough pasture on a spur of high ground projecting north-west from Mid Hill, between the Coom Burn and Papert Sike watercourses, at approximately 330m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is circular on plan, to include the remains described and an area around within which evidence relating to the monument's construction and use may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Tundergarth and the County of Dumfries as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 4 day of February Two thousand and ten, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
