ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Pearsby Hill, enclosures and settlement 1250m E of Craighousesteads comprises the earthwork remains of a curvilinear palisaded enclosure, overlain by two later enclosures, all interpreted, according to their form and position, as later prehistoric in date (from the mid-1st millennium BC). The monument lies at around 290m above sea level, close to the summit of Pearsby Hill. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described and an area around within which evidence relating to their construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduled area extends up to but excludes a drystone dyke to the north and north-west. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Tundergarth and the County of Dumfries as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 12 day of Jan Two thousand and ten, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
