THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12767
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Whiteyett, earthworks 575m SSE to 935m S and 650m S to 1060m S of comprises the earthwork remains of two discrete lengths of double linear banks and medial ditch, interpreted as evidence of pastoral agricultural practice dating to the early centuries of the 1st millennium AD. In addition are the earthwork remains of an unfinished settlement adjacent to and potentially contiguous with one of the linear features and likely to date to a similar period. The monument is located at between around 190m and 210m above sea level, on the W-facing flank and across the crest of Slippery Knowe, to the north-west of the fort at Castle O'er and around 250m west of the White Esk. The areas to be scheduled are irregular on plan to include the visible remains of the monument, as well as an area around within which evidence relating to its construction, use and abandonment may survive. Specifically excluded, to allow for their maintenance, are the above-ground elements of the post-and-wire fence and stone dyke along the line of the E area. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Eskdalemuir and the County of Dumfries as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 24 day of March Two thousand and ten, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
