THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12805
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Deils Wood, cairn 350m E of Bonnyton comprises the remains of a cairn that was built probably between 3000 and 1000 BC in the late Neolithic or Bronze Age. It is visible as a prominent mound of turf-covered stones situated in a copse of mature trees at around 160m above sea level. The copse is on the NE end of a low ridge 285m SW of Brakenrig Burn. The area to be scheduled is a clipped circle on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The boundary on the SW side runs up to but specifically excludes the post-and-wire fence. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Eaglesham and the County of Renfrew as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 11 day of August Two thousand and ten, before this witness Lorna Fairholm, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
