THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 12868
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Hillside, roundhouses 690m WSW of and 780m and 830m SW of comprises the remains of three prehistoric roundhouses, dating to sometime between 2500 BC and AD 400. The houses are visible as low grass-grown banks and arcs of stones and are placed at intervals of around 100m. They lie between 225m and 240m above sea level on the south side of the valley of the Green Water, on a gentle north-facing slope. There are long views down the valley to the east. The three areas to be scheduled include the remains described and areas around them within which evidence relating to the monuments' construction, use and abandonment may survive. The northern area is irregular on plan, the others circular. The northernmost area extends up to, but excludes, a post-and-wire fence to the west of the monument. In the middle area, the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence are also specifically excluded to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilmacolm and the County of Renfrew as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Deborah Mays, Deputy Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 24th day of February Two thousand and eleven, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
