THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13028
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

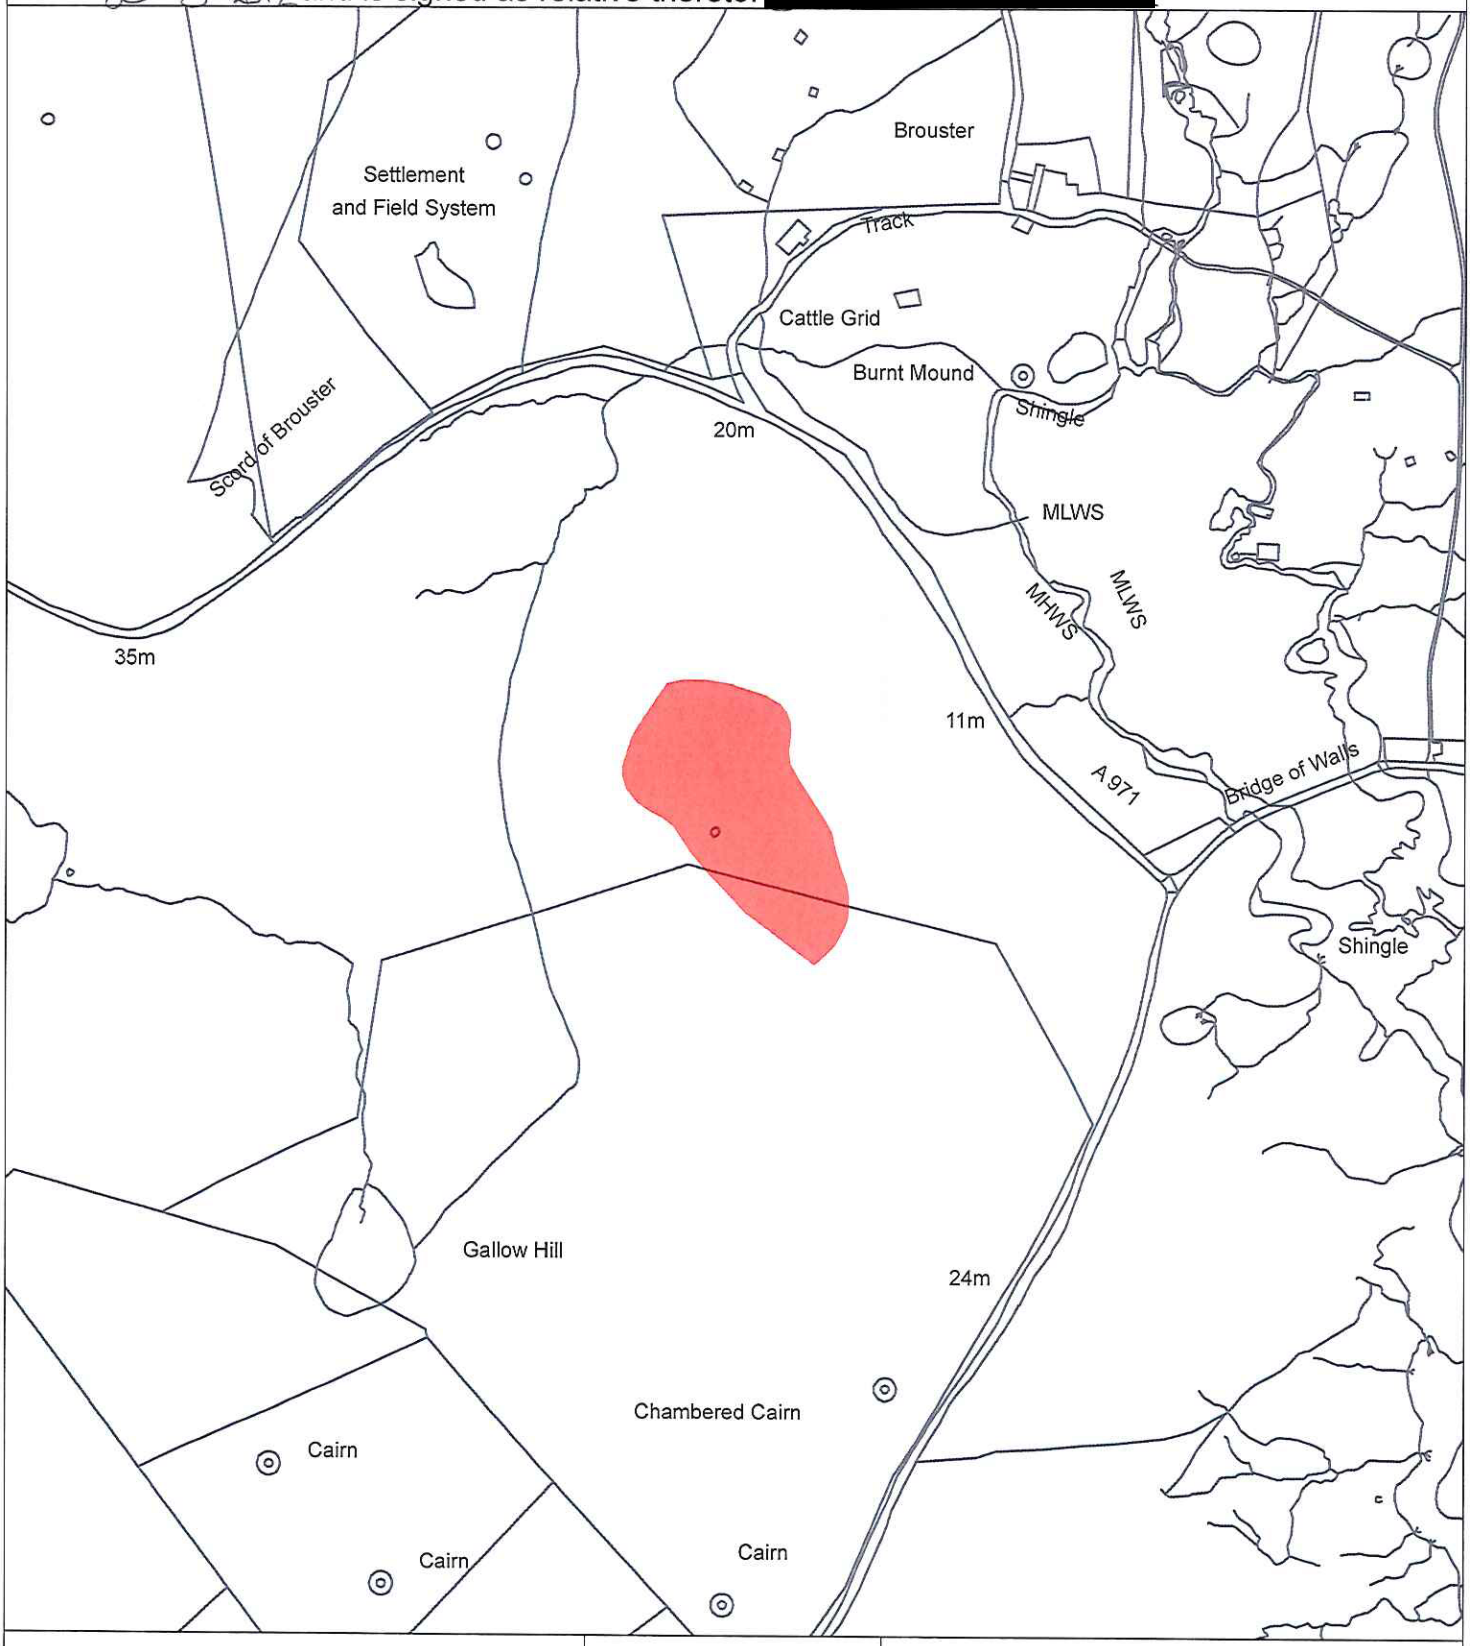

The monument known as Gallow Hill, prehistoric house and field system 390m S of Brouster comprises a prehistoric house and field system, in use probably during the period 3000 BC to AD 500. The house is visible as an upstanding sub-circular feature, represented by a stone wall on the north side and a stone and turf bank to the south. It lies within one of at least five small fields, defined by low banks of earth and stone. Six clearance cairns lie in the NW corner of the field system, and smaller piles of stone clearance are visible across the area. The monument lies about 40m above sea level on a gentle NE-facing slope, some 400m west of the coastline at Bridge of Walls. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Walls and Sandness and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 30th day of March Two thousand and twelve, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
