THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13034
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

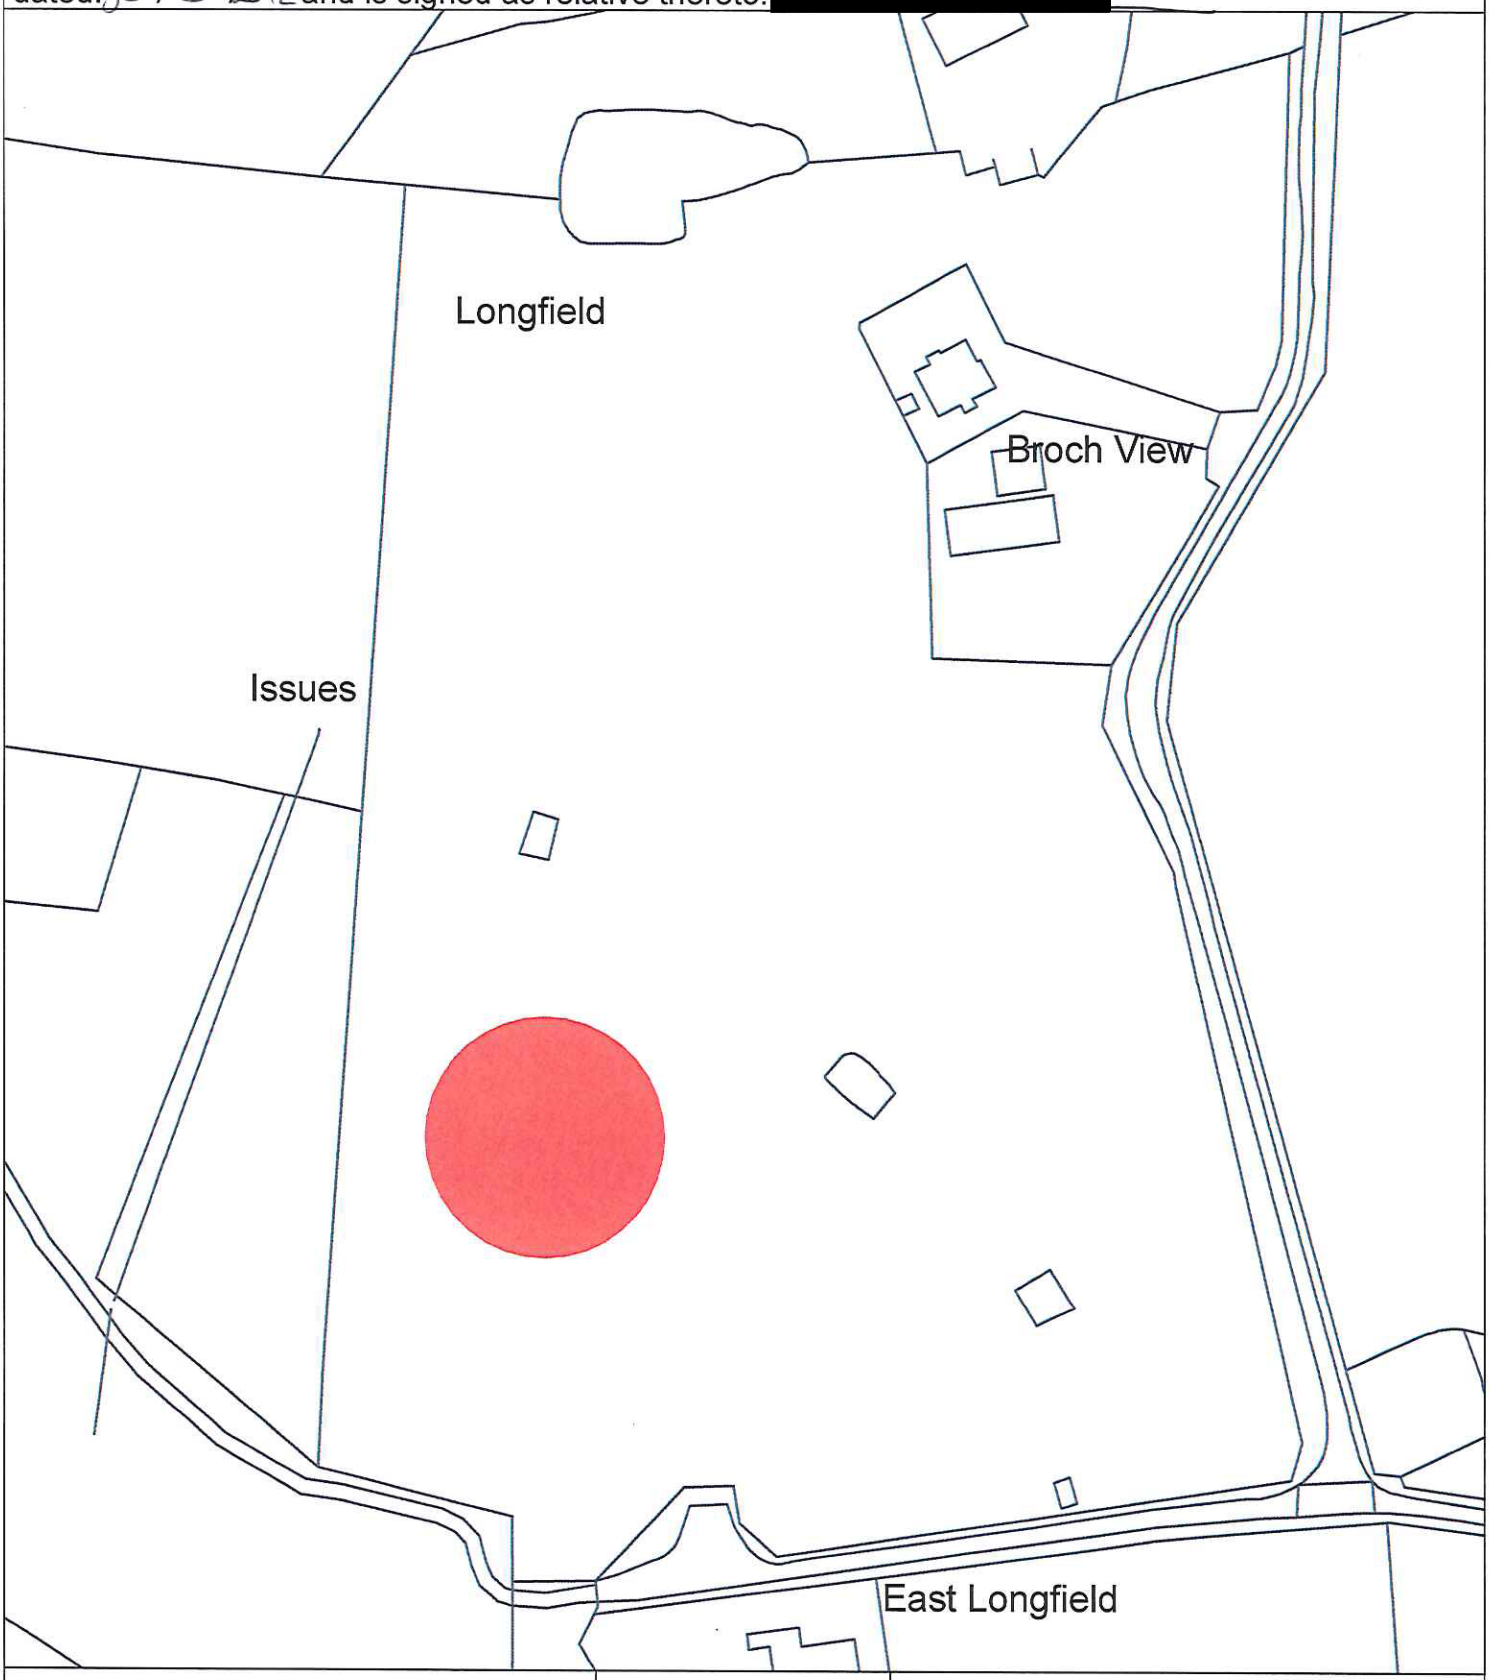

The monument known as Broch View, homestead 140m SW of comprises a homestead of probable late Bronze Age or early Iron Age date, most likely from sometime in the first millennium BC. The homestead survives as a penannular, grass-covered stony bank, 1.5m wide, enclosing an area 15m in diameter. Immediately to the north are the remains of a concentric bank and ditch, each about 1m wide. The monument is located at 40m above sea level on a south-facing slope, with views to Loch of Brow. The area to be scheduled is circular on plan, 40m in diameter, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The above-ground elements of an electricity pole are specifically excluded, to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dunrossness and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 30th day of March Two thousand and twelve, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
