THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13125
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Bayanne House, prehistoric settlement 100m WSW of comprises the remains of an Iron Age settlement, constructed and occupied between around 500 BC and AD 500. Two clearly visible oval structures survive, with faced walling, covered with turf and revetted with earth banks. Beyond the main structures there are indications of other remains in the adjacent field. In addition, stratified archaeological deposits are visible over a distance of at least 30m in the cliff section immediately to the SW, S and SE of the settlement. The site lies on a low cliff, less than 10m above sea level, on gently sloping land overlooking Basta Voe. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. To allow for its maintenance, the scheduling excludes the above-ground elements of the post-and-wire fence which runs around the edge of these structures and partly across the scheduled area. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Yell and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

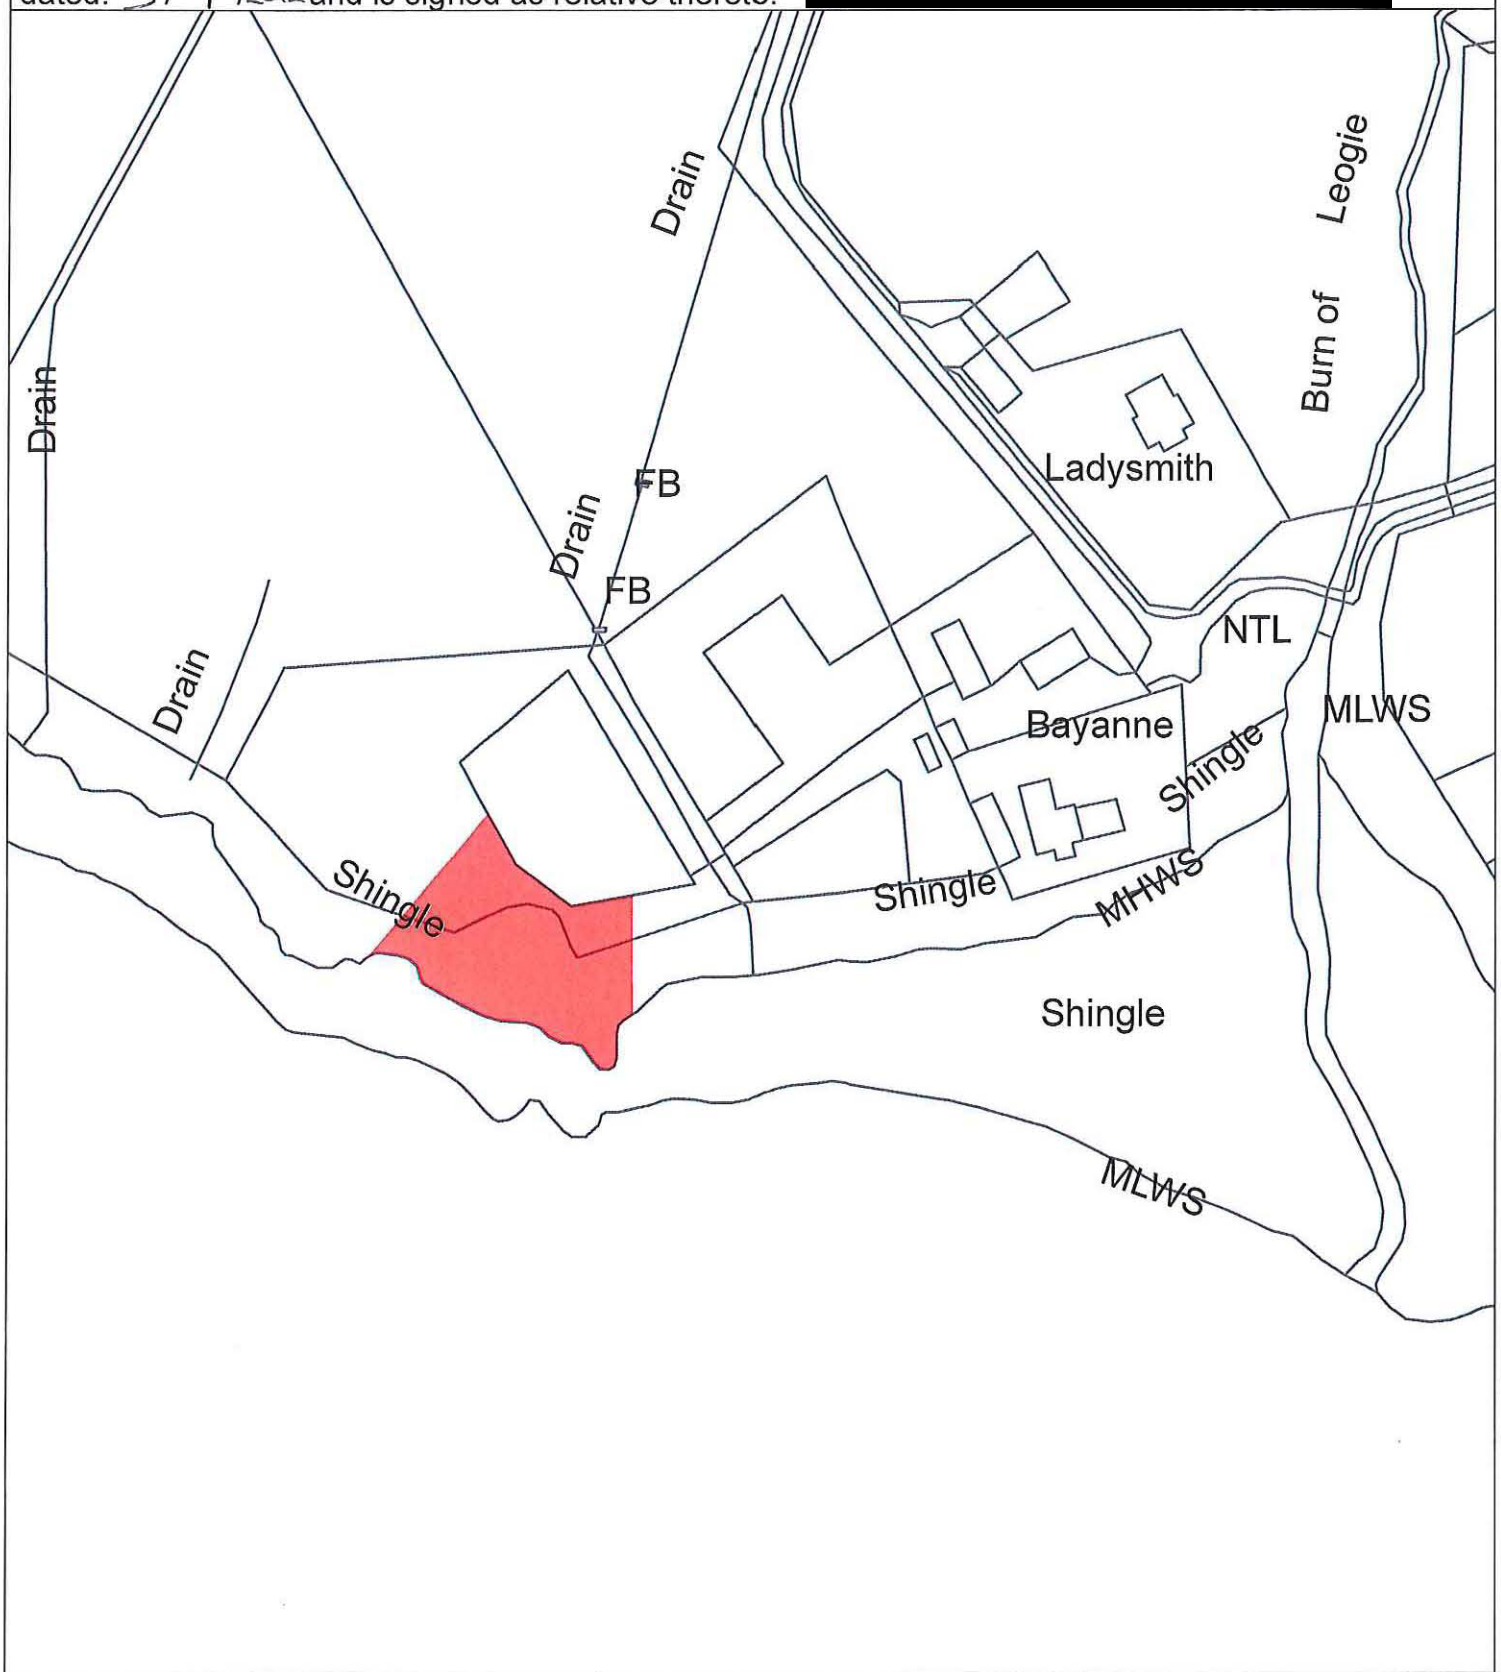

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 5th day of July Two thousand and twelve, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
