THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13286
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Barmolloch Mhor, cup and ring marked rock 250m W of comprises a rock outcrop ornamented with more than 75 prehistoric rock art motifs. The motifs include a single cup design and combinations of cups surrounded by concentric rings and ovals (cup and ring marks), two of which have linear grooves or gutters cutting across the larger design. Rock art can be difficult to date accurately, but these motifs were created probably during the early prehistoric period, between about 3500 BC and 2500 BC. The outcrop lies 120m above sea level and is located above and to the W of the natural route northwards along the Clachandubh Burn. It overlooks land on the E side of the glen and has long views to the E and SE. The uppermost surface of the outcrop is at ground level and the currently exposed area measures approximately 11m SW-NE by 7m NW-SE. The rock panel and carvings are likely to continue to the SW under the grass cover and deeper soil. The scheduled area is rectangular in shape and measures 21m E-W by 16m transversely. The scheduled area includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilmichael Glassary and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 24th day of August Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
