

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13321
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dominican Friary, 25m S of Blackfriars' Chapel, St Andrews comprises the remains of the medieval Dominican Friary in St Andrews, also known as Blackfriars. The friary was in existence by 1464 and was destroyed in 1559. The monument includes the upstanding remains of the N transept of a chapel built in the early 16th century. The transept has a vaulted roof and an unusual semi-octagonal apse at the N end; it measures about 12m N-S by 11.5m transversely. The monument also includes ground S of the transept where there is very high potential for buried archaeological remains of the remainder of the chapel and other friary buildings. The monument lies 20m above sea level on the S side of South Street, immediately N of Madras College. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all modern structures including modern walls, a flagpole, iron railings, signs, and street furniture. The scheduling specifically excludes the top 30cm of all roads, pavements and areas of hard standing. The monument, which lies in the Parish of St Andrews and St Leonards and the County of Fife as shown in red on the Plan annexed and is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as St Andrews Blackfriars, Dominican Friary as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 22 February 1994 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Fife on 15 July 1994.

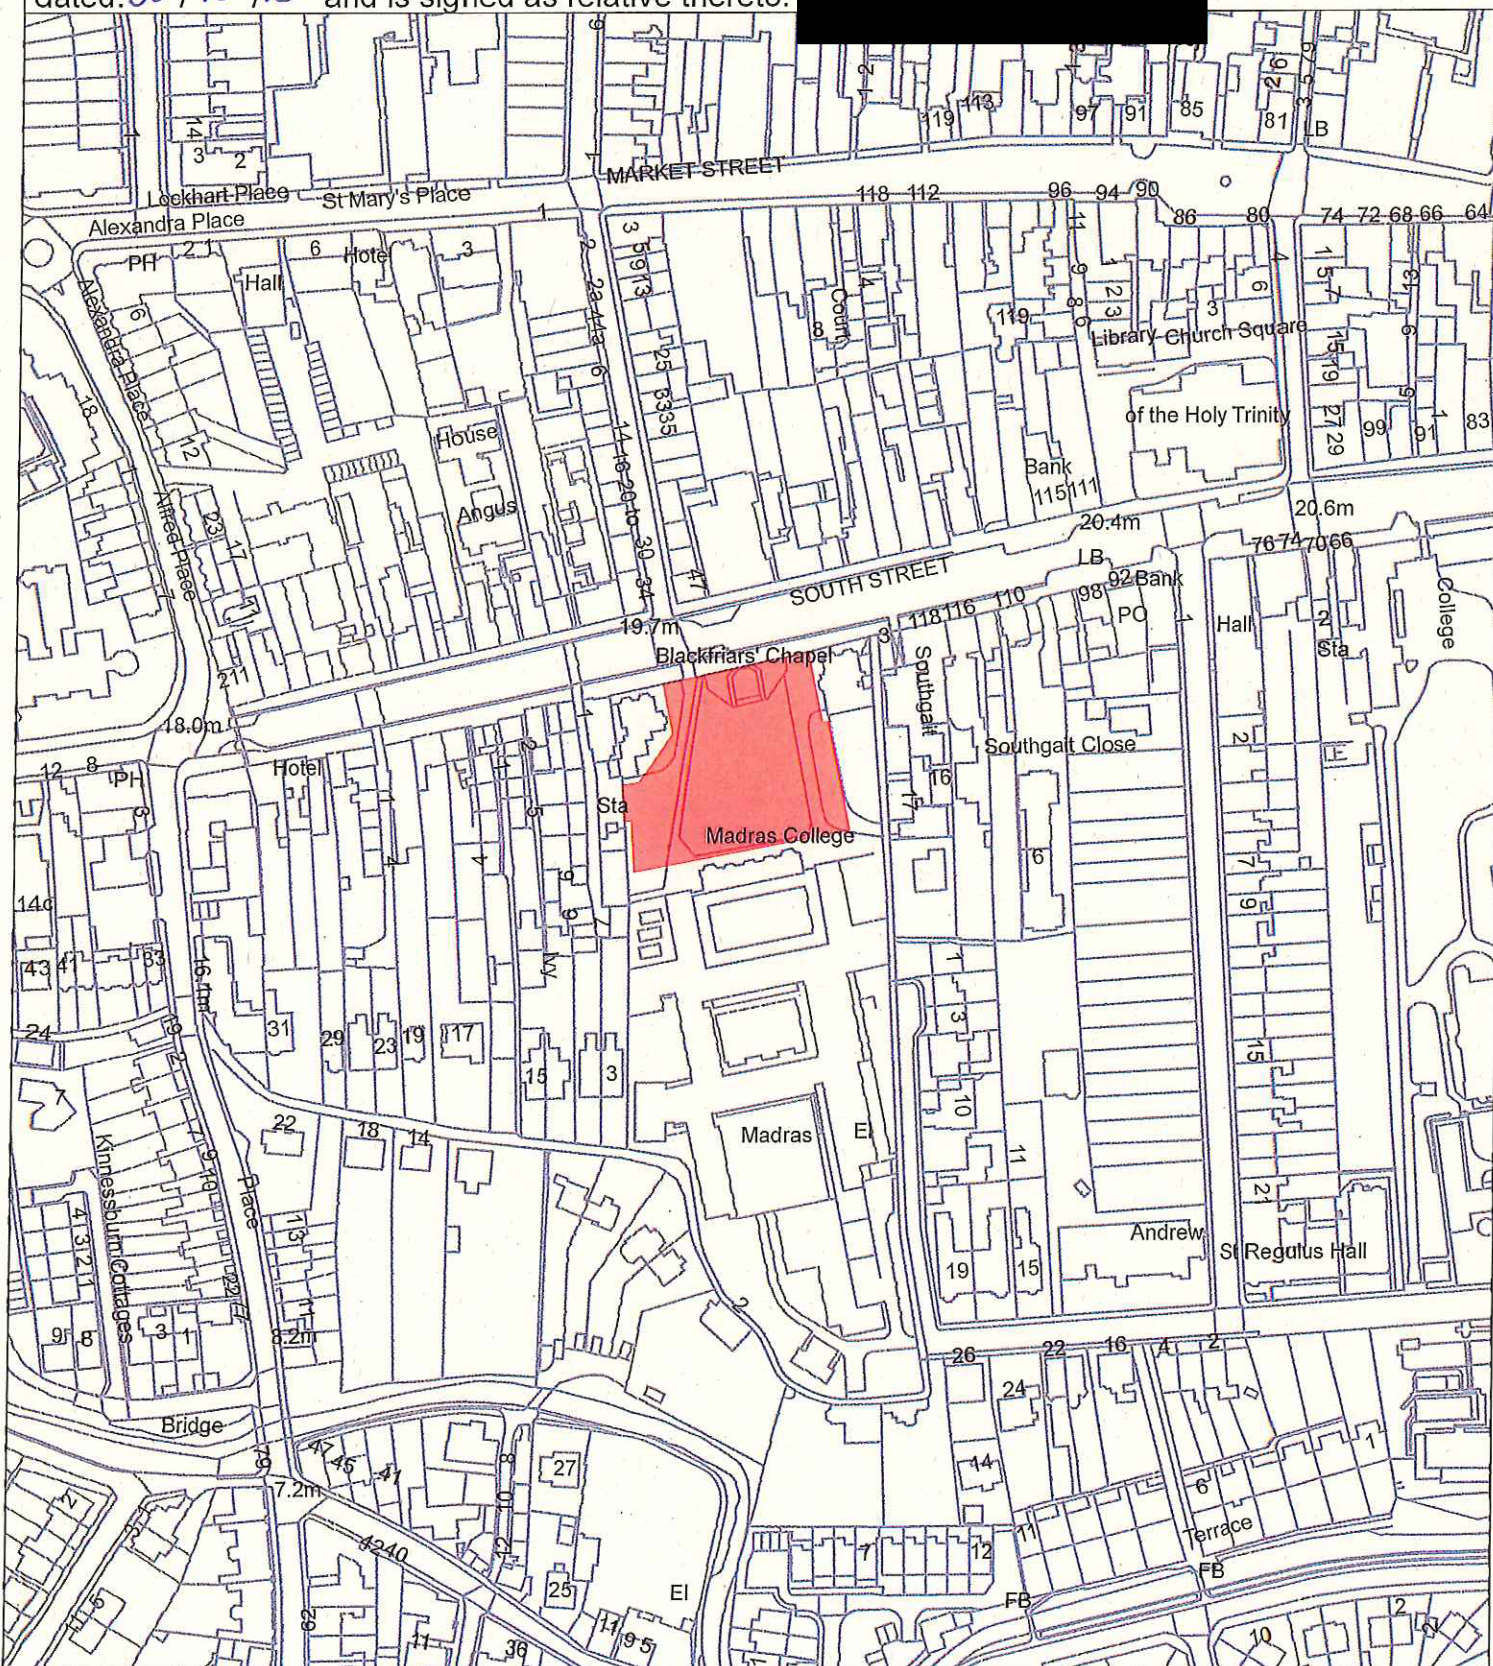

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 30th day of October Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
