THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13558
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Stromabank Hotel, anti-aircraft battery, radar site and camp 150m NW of comprises the remains of an anti-aircraft battery, radar site and associated accommodation camp, dating from the Second World War. It is visible as a series of concrete structures, hut bases, timber posts and associated earthwork and stone structures and pathways. It is located on Hill of Wards on South Walls at around 45m above sea level, overlooking Longhope Bay to the N and the Pentland Firth to the S, with good views in all directions. The scheduled area is irregular on plan and includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction and use is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all post-and-wire fences in the area to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Walls and Flotta and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Stromabank Hotel, anti-aircraft battery, radar site and camp 150m NW of referred to in the Entry in the schedule of Monuments by Scottish Ministers in respect of the monument dated 19 March 2015 and recorded in the General registers of Sasines for the County of Orkney on 3 April 2015.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 8th day of July Two thousand and fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
