THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 13613
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Edzell Old Church and Lindsay Burial Aisle, 465m SSW of Edzell Castle includes the structure known as the Lindsay burial aisle, the buried remains of the medieval church of Edzell parish and the core of the surrounding burial ground. The medieval church may date from the 13th century, while the Lindsay aisle was added probably to the S side of the existing church nave in the 16th century. A fragment of 9th-century stone sculpture found in the churchyard suggests there may have been an ecclesiastical site here from the early Christian period, as does the site's traditional association with St Drostan. The monument is situated about 100m NE of the West Water at around 60m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. On the S and E sides, the scheduling extends up to but does not include the boundary walls of the burial ground. The scheduling specifically excludes all burial lairs where rights of burial still exist and all memorial stones that date to after 1800. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Edzell and the County of Angus as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No ANG3692 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Lindsay Burial Aisle, Edzell Churchyard as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Minister of Works in respect of the monument dated 8 October 1959 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Angus on 21 October 1959.

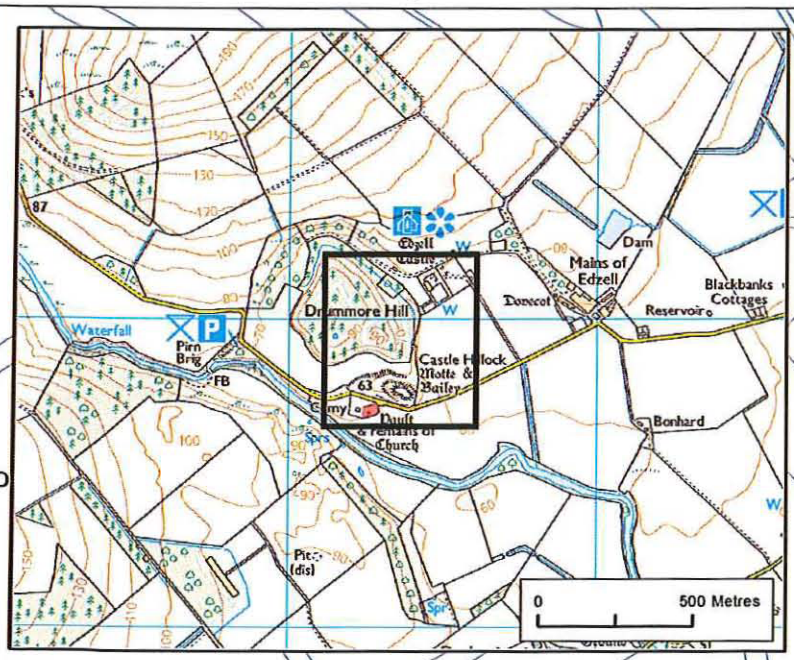

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 28th day of July Two thousand and fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
