THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Antonine Wall, Bar Hill, rampart, ditch, fort and Military Way comprises a section of the Antonine Wall which runs from Bar Hill to the eastern boundary of Strone Plantation. It includes the surviving remains of one of the Antonine Wall forts. The Antonine Wall at this location consists of the rampart, the ditch, the berm (area between rampart and ditch), the upcast mound, and the Military Way. The area to be scheduled includes the Antonine Wall rampart, berm, ditch and upcast mound, the Roman fort and its associated ditches, the Military Way, the later prehistoric fort of Castle Hill, and an area to the N and S where traces of activities associated with the construction and use of the monument may survive. The area is very irregular on plan. The top 50cm of the track which runs through the scheduled area, and the top 50cm of the area of hard standing at the W end of the area are excluded. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kirkintilloch and the County of Dumbarton as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto

is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.
