THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

90208

The monument known as Maclellan's Castle, comprises the remains of Maclellan's Castle, surviving as a well preserved ruined tower house. It now stands at the end of St Cuthbert's Street, close to the harbour in Kirkcudbright. The area to be scheduled is sub-rectangular, with maximum dimensions of 57m WNW-ESE by 38m NNE-SSW, to include the standing castle together with the associated grounds, within which associated archaeological remains might be expected to survive. The area is enclosed by a modern boundary wall which is excluded from the scheduling, together with the top 30cm of all paths. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kirkcudbright and the County of Stewartry of Kirkcudbright as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of September Two thousand and four, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
