THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Links of Noltland, settlements comprises extensive midden deposits, field walls, houses and other structural remains dating to the Late Neolithic or Early Bronze Age, and lies in the sand dunes known as Links of Noltland immediately south of a small bay known as Grobust. The area to be scheduled is roughly rectangular, measuring up to 220m NNW-SSE by 320m ENE-WSW. The N boundary follows the line of the Guardianship fence for most of its length, and its continuation to the E is defined as the southern boundary of the coastal track, which is specifically excluded from the area to be scheduled. The scheduled area includes all of the exposures of archaeological material and an area around and between the known exposures where traces of activity related to the occupation of the site are likely to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Westray and the County of Orkney as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
