The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979

Amended entry in the schedule of monuments

Historic Environment Scotland in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 hereby amends the entry in the statutory schedule of monuments as set out below.

The monument known as Ardnadam, settlement, chapel and enclosure 215m W of The Larches comprises a multi-period site comprising a prehistoric settlement and an early medieval chapel set within a sub-oval enclosure. The monument is located in a woodland clearing on the northeast side of Dunloskin Wood at 50m above sea level.

The scheduled area is an irregular polygon on plan and includes the area described above and area around it in which evidence for the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. Specifically excluded from the scheduled area are the above ground remains of interpretation signage, wooden pegs and all modern boundary features in order to allow for their continued maintenance.

The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dunoon and Kilmun and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Ardnadam Chapel and Enclosure as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 26 July 1972 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 4 September 1972.
