The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979

Amended entry in the schedule of monuments

Historic Environment Scotland in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 hereby amends the entry in the statutory schedule of monuments as set out below.

The monument known as Nap Hill, Roman signal station 900m SE of Little Clyde comprises the remains of a Roman watch tower or signal station dating to the first or second century AD. The monument survives as the low earthwork remains of a circular ditch, buried tower structure and associated remains. The monument is located in a forestry clearing on a west facing slope between Nap Hill and Ring Hill at approximately 330m above sea level.

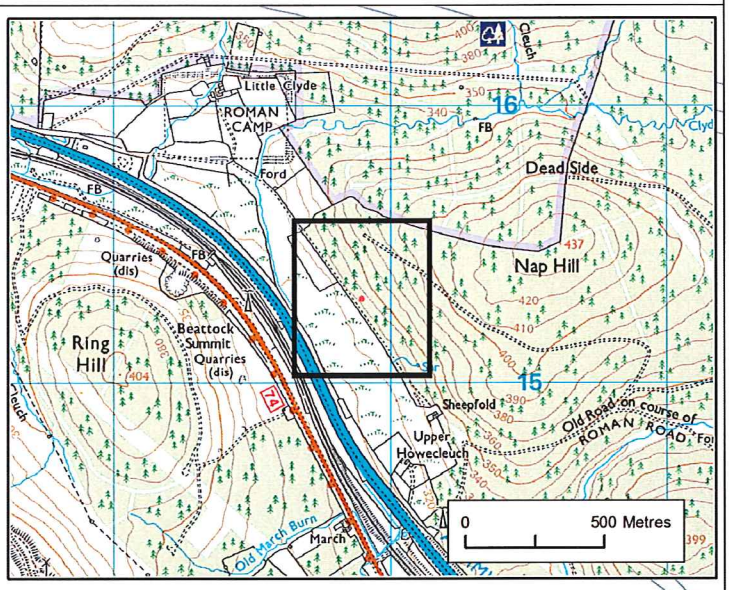

The scheduled area is circular on plan, 22m in diameter, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive.

The monument, which lies in the Parish of Crawford and the County of Lanark as shown in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Beattock Summit, Roman signal station 900m SE of Little Clyde as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 1 August 1975 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Lanark on 27 August 1975.
