The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979

Addition to the schedule of monuments

Historic Environment Scotland in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 hereby adds to the statutory schedule of monuments as set out below.

The monument known as Knockinnon Castle, 400m ENE of Knockinnon comprises the remains of a medieval castle visible as turfed-covered footings located on a prominent rocky outcrop itself modified for defensive purposes. A mid-20th century concrete structure is located on the highest part of the site. There are extensive views along the coast and out to sea.

The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes, but extends up to, the post and wire fences to the east and west of the monument and all above ground elements of the 20th century concrete structure on the summit of the hill.

The monument, which lies in the Parish of Latheron and the County of Caithness as shown in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto.
