1. Decision

Scheduled monument name (including designation number)	Changes to the designation
Cobleland, pillbox 140m NE of (SM10826)	• Amend the entry in the schedule of monuments as Cobleland, pillbox 170m NE of • Revised scheduling map

The monument was first scheduled on 04/02/2003 and the documentation does not meet current standards. An assessment using the selection guidance was not carried out as the monument continues to meet the criterion of national importance. The decision is to amend the entry in the schedule to provide an updated legal name and map. This entry supersedes the existing entry in the schedule.

2. Designation Background and Development Proposals

2.1 Designation Background

The monument was first scheduled on 04 February 2003.

2.2 Development Proposals

Scottish Water will be conducting permitted development works in the immediate area. There are no other developments known of that affect this scheduled monument.

3. Assessment

3.1 Assessment information

The present assessment is desk-based, using available information and has included reference to recent photographs.

3.2 Assessment of national importance

No assessment was undertaken as this monument continues to meet the criterion of national importance.

The entry in the schedule is being amended to provide a revised legal name and associated map, in order to improve the accuracy of the record.

The designation selection guidance are published in the Historic Environment Scotland Designations Policy and Selection Guidance 2019, Annex 1, pp 9-10, https://www.historicenvironment.scot/designation-policy.

3.3 Policy considerations

The purpose and implications of designation are issues that require to be taken into account in our decision making. This will include considering whether designation is the best mechanism for recognising the cultural significance of a site or place; and if so, which designations are most appropriate for its future management.

Scheduling remains an appropriate designation for this monument. This amendment has been undertaken in order to clarify the position and extent of the scheduled monument.
