The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979

Addition to the schedule of monuments

Historic Environment Scotland, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 1(3) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979, hereby adds to the statutory schedule of monuments as set out below.

The monument known as Whytbank Tower, ancillary buildings and garden comprises the remains of a complex of ancillary buildings and a formal garden surrounding Whytbank Tower. The remains of the buildings are arranged around a courtyard with Whytbank Tower occupying the north west side. The garden survives as a series of terraces on east facing slopes below Whytbank Tower. The monument is situated on the east slope of Knowes Hill.

The scheduled area is irregular. It includes the remains described above and an area around within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes Whytbank Tower, which is a modern reconstruction, all modern signage, gates and timber handrails.

The monument lies in the Parish of Caddonfoot and the County of Selkirk, as shown in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto.

Authorised by Elizabeth McCrone, Head of Designations with Historic Environment Scotland on 06/08/2020.
